Susan B. Yoffee

Japan, Nepal, India, Vietnam, are just some of the places that Susan has traveled. When she is not on the road, Susan is determined to do her very best for her clients.

Susan concentrates her practice in the areas of estate and trust litigation, securities litigation/arbitration, commercial litigation and appeals. She is a certified Florida Supreme Court Mediator and is available to mediate any commercial matter that is tried in the Circuit and Civil courts of Florida.

Susan has handled a wide array of litigation, including golf course design and construction litigation, securities arbitrations, probate and trust litigation involving contesting of wills, and the removal and surcharge of trustees, shareholder disputes, non-compete agreements, contract disputes, and real estate commission disputes.

Born in New Orleans, Louisiana, Susan grew up in Jacksonville, Florida. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a judicial clerk for the Honorable James H. Walden at the Fourth District Court of Appeal in Florida. Susan is one of the longest members of the Haile Shaw & Pfaffenberger team and if there's one thing she wants you to know about the firm, it's that "we are caring attorneys."
